Come meet
Dr. Marc Ricciardi

Join Dr. Marc Ricciardi as he analyzes the theology embedded in the work of the famous author of Paradise Lost and other works in his talk, “Milton’s Trinitarian Triumvirate: God For, As and In Man”.

Dr. Marc Ricciardi’s BIO

Marcello Carmine Ricciardi is an Associate Professor of English at St. Joseph’s College in Patchogue, N.Y. He completed his Ph.D. at New York University in Seventeenth-Century Studies. He is author of the book length study John Milton’s Incarnational Poetics: The Roles of Mary and Jesus in Paradise Regained and has published numerous articles on the relationship between faith and literature. Currently, he is working on his new book- Prophets of Light and Darkness: Cosmic Horror and Sacred Terror in the Weird Worlds of Milton and Lovecraft. His commitment to Christological poetics, Scriptural authority, and the epic tradition sustains and informs all of his research.
