

BOOK TALK SERIES

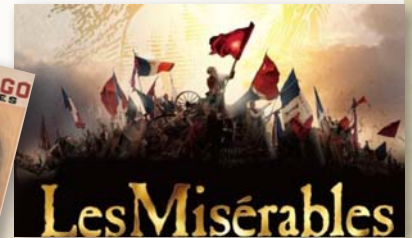

COME MEET FR. JOHN MORRISON

Speaking on:

Les Miserables: More than Just a Mega-Musical

This talk focuses on a single song from the famous musical based on Victor Hugo's novel. The song "One Day More" functions as a 'finaletto,' a word that joins together the theological theme of the journey as a road to Calvary: "Another day another destiny, this never-ending road to Calvary".

FR. MORRISON'S BIO

Father John Morrison is an Episcopal priest and retired high school English teacher. He taught for many years at Bay Shore High School, where he developed the curriculum for AP Literature and Composition. He is the author of To Love Another Person: A Spiritual Journey Through Les Misérables. Fr. John holds degrees from Dartmouth, Hofstra, and SUNY Stony Brook and has taught courses and run workshops on many religious and literary topics. From 1982 until 2000, he was an instructor in Literature and Theology at the George Mercer, Jr. Memorial School of Theology in Garden City. He is a long-time member of the New York C. S. Lewis Society and has attended many C. S. Lewis Summer Institutes in the United Kingdom. This is Fr. Morrison's third contribution to our book series. In 2015, he presented a talk on the novels of Michael O'Brien, and in 2016, he spoke on the moral imagination of C. S. Lewis.
